

📍 11759 Groat Road, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada T5M 3K6

☎ (780) 415-1661

@ www.tennisalberta.com

COMMUNITY FACILITATOR TRAINING COURSE FAQ

1. What is the Community Facilitator Training and what can I do with the training?

This non-certification* five-hour in-person course plus online education/training includes safeguarding education, importance of quality standards to ensure retention and growth, age appropriate equipment, organizing play activities, and communicating effectively with children.

This workshop is intended to provide community leaders, volunteers and instructors with the framework to offer quality tennis programs in their community.

Community Facilitator Training is not a course for coach certification*

2. What is included in the course?

The training includes online education, safeguarding education, a background check, Respect In Sport training and a full-day on court training.

3. Do you need to be an expert-level tennis player to participate?

No! This course is open to any level of player.

4. How much is the course?

The course is being offered for $15 plus tax.

5. Where is the course held?

Eastlink Centre Field House (10 Knowledge Way, Grande Prairie).

6. How do I register?

Participants register online through the TPA. More information and a link to register can be found at tennisalberta.com/coaching/tpa-courses or by scanning the QR code.

7. How do I complete the online portion of the course?

Once you are registered for the course, you will have access to the online modules through the TPA website. Participants are required to complete the following modules before the on-court session:

- Quality Standards – Introduction
- Quality Standards - Caring Instructor
- Quality Standards - Making Friends
- Quality Standards - Active Participation
- Quality Standards - Appropriate Challenge
- Quality Standards – Improvement
- Quality Standards – Fun
- Respect In Sport Activity Leader Course

8. Who can I contact if I have more questions?

Please contact Tennis Alberta at 780-415-1661 or info@tennisalberta.com with questions.