

Hello, future coaching leaders!

The Red Deer Instructor Course is for you if you're excited to:

- Become a fully certified Tennis Canada Instructor!
- Build a network of like-minded coaches across Alberta and Canada,
- Pursue your talents and interests in a safe and welcoming environment
- Be an active member of the Tennis Professionals Association (TPA),
- Upon successful completion, be ready to be hired!

Eligibility Requirements:

- Minimum age 14 years old:
 - All candidates must turn 15 years during the year of participation
 - All in-course testing can be completed, however, young candidates will not receive their Tennis Alberta Instructor Certificate until their 16th birthday.
- Play Tennis Level: 3.0 or higher

Registration and Course Information:

- 100% attendance is mandatory
- Certification consists of:
 - demonstration, leadership, and teaching knowledge and skills,
 - knowledge and Making Ethical Decisions evaluations.
- E-Learning Modules must be completed before the course starts (approximately 6-7 hours needed to complete both the Quality Standards and Respect in Sport for Activity Leaders) Candidates will not be given access to their results until both the Making Ethical Decisions (MED) module and all eight e-learning modules have been completed.
*(As of April 1st, 2026, through your online TPA account, you will be directed to the Coaching Association of Canada (CAC) to complete the MED module, for an $85 fee).
- Candidates who cannot attend their course:
 - MUST withdraw two weeks prior to the start date or be issued a $50 penalty
 - No refund is provided if candidate withdraws before completion of the course
- Course registration is on a first come, first serve basis, so sign up promptly
- The course fee is $700 (tax included)
- Course fee includes membership to Tennis Canada's Tennis Professionals Association (TPA) plus member benefits, including insurance.
- TPA benefits become active once the candidate successfully completes the course.
- Candidates requiring a retake have 18 months to complete it
